

BY MAJOR-GENERAL L
A M B E R T.

Hereas Complaints are daily made of the great damage sustained by many, and hinderance of Commerce and Trading, by the differing Values of Coyn in severall Parts of this Nation, it being in some Places of higher and greater Value then in others: I do therefore hereby Declare, that after Publication hereof, all sorts of Moneys and Coyn, both Forraign and Scottish, shall be currant and pass in all Paiments between Party and Party, in all Parts of this Nation, at the Rates or Values they passed in March 1650. And who-soever shall make Paiment, or proffer to make Paiment, after Publication hereof, of any Money or Coyn, at a higher Rate or Value, shall Forfeit the sum so paid, or proffered to be paid, to be Levied upon his Goods and Geir, the one Moity to the Informer, and the other to the Poor of the place, where the Offence shall be committed. And all Governours of Garrisons, and Commanders in Chief of Regiments, are hereby strictly required to take care, that this Proclamation be forthwith Proclaimed by beat of Drum, or sound of Trumpet, in the most Publick Places within their respective Quarters.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Edinburgh, the 29. of December 1651.
